

IMBERBUS

Providing a classic bus service across the Salisbury Plain to the lost village of Imber

Join us again this year for our annual trip across the Salisbury Plain to the lost village of Imber.

A fleet of old and new London Transport Routemaster buses will provide a regular service from Warminster Station to the abandoned Wiltshire village of Imber and other isolated locations on the Salisbury Plain, between 1000 and 1800.

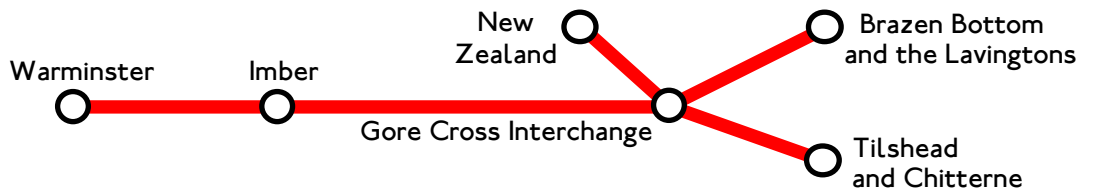

Visit www.imberbus.wordpress.com for full details, including directions on how to get to Warminster Station
